17th July 2022— SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PRAYER TO ST MARY MAGDALENE
FEAST DAY 22ND JUNE

Saint Mary Magdalene pray for us to God our Father so that our sins may be forgiven the same way Jesus Christ forgave you many sins. It was through the same prayers that our Lord answered and raised your Brother Lazarus from the dead back to life.

Pray for us to God o St Mary Magdalene so that we can get the courage to acknowledge our sins and beg Jesus Christ to forgive us. May we be encouraged by your example to always seek to be in the presence of Jesus Christ because it is in Him that we will get eternal salvation.
Amen.

From the Fathers.... Mary Feasted On The Bread of Life.

What was Mary enjoying while she was listening? What was she eating? What was she drinking? Do you know? Let's ask the Lord, who keeps such a splendid table for his own people, let's ask him. "Blessed," he says, "are those who are hungry and thirsty for justice, because they shall be satisfied." It was from this wellspring, from this storehouse of justice, that Mary, seated at the Lord's feet, was in her hunger receiving some crumbs. You see, the Lord was giving her then as much as she was able to take. But as for the whole amount, which he was going to give at his table of the future, not even the disciples, not even the apostles themselves, were able to take in at the time when he said to them, "I still have many things to say to you, but you are unable to hear them now..."

What was Mary enjoying? What was she eating? I'm persistent on this point, because I'm enjoying it too. I will venture to say that she was eating the one she was listening to. I mean, if she was eating truth, didn't he say himself, "I am the truth"? What more can I say? He was being eaten, because he was the Bread. "I, he said, "am the bread who came down from heaven." This is the bread which nourishes and never diminishes.
