FROM THE FATHERS

He saw with the eyes of faith

He now sits at the right hand of the Father in heaven. We ought to give careful consideration to this fact with the eyes of faith to prevent the impression that he is immovably fixed in any spot so as not be permitted to stand or to walk. For, the fact that St Stephen said that he saw him standing does not mean that St Stephen's vision was distorted or that his statement is a variation of the creed. Far be such a thought, far be such a statement from us! The Lord's dwelling in lofty and ineffable blessedness has merely been expressed in this way to indicate that he dwells there.

*Augustine of Hippo (354-430),
Sermon 214.8*
