ST PETER
CLAVER, PRIEST
Feast Day
9th September

St Peter Claver (26.06.1580 - 8.09.1654) was a Spanish Jesuit priest and missionary born in Verdu (Catalonia, Spain) who, due to his life and work, became the patron saint of slaves, the Republic of Colombia, and ministry to African Americans. In 1610, Peter was sent to Cartagena to complete his training and ordained five years later. Cartagena was the center of the slave trade to South America, with thousands arriving every year from West Africa. Deeply moved by their misery, Peter Claver vowed that he would be "the slave of the enslaved Africans forever". With the aid of native interpreters he evangelized the slaves and instructed them in the faith. He estimated that he baptised more than three hundred thousand people in forty years, an average about twenty a day. In 1650, a serious illness incapacitated Peter Claver. He died in 1654.

PRAYER FOR THE NATIVITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Feast Day
8th September

O most Blessed Virgin Mary,
mother of gentleness and mercy,
I, an unworthy sinner,
fly to you with sentiments
of confidence and love.

I beg you who stood close to your most beloved Son
as He hung upon the cross,
graciously to remain near me,
a miserable sinner,
and near all priests
who throughout the whole church
will offer Holy Mass this day.

By your gracious favour
help me to offer a sacrifice
which is worthy and acceptable
in sight of the most high
and undivided Trinity.
Amen.

From the Fathers.....Seek Amendment, Sparing Shame.

If someone has done you injury and you have suffered, what should be done? You have heard the answer already in today's Scripture: "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone."

If you fail to do so, you are worse than he is. He has done some harm, and by doing harm he has stricken himself with a grievous wound. Will you then completely disregard your brother's wound? Will you simply watch him stumble and fall down? Will you disregard his predicament? If so, you are worse in your silence than he in his abuse.

Therefore, when any one sins against us, let us take great care, but not merely for ourselves. For it is a glorious thing to forget injuries. Just set aside your own injury, but do not neglect your brother's wound. Therefore "go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone," intent upon his amendment but sparing his sense of shame. For it might happen that through defensiveness he will begin to justify his sin, and so you will have inadvertently nudged him still closer toward the very behavior you desire to amend. Therefore "tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother, "because he might have been lost, had you not spoken with him."
